Monthly maintenance work is performed in the background of the website according to the points under "SUPPORT, MAINTENANCE & CARE." These tasks are not visible externally but are a continuous part of Website-LUX's service. Costs for server, domain, SSL, and software licenses are included as stated in the offer. The agreement begins 14 days after signing, unless another start date is agreed in writing. By signing, I conclusively enter into the service contract including the attached terms and conditions of Website-LUX.de. I accept the general terms and conditions. The client agrees to the transfer of all necessary data for invoicing and payment collection to a billing service provider (bank) until revoked

¹ The one-time design setup fee is due at the start, while the monthly service fee is billed from the beginning.

² The contract automatically renews for 12 months unless terminated on time (termination period = 2 months).
